

This fight night system is custom designed to fly over any boxing ring or ultimate fighting arena or cage. It can be flown from riggin points using chain motors or ground supported on legs. It provides adequate lighting for a professionally televised event, sound coverage for up to 3000 persons and can even be equipped with projection screens on all four sides for live footage, replays and sponsor advertisements.

